Casey's legacy

WILLIAM Casey's memory is being channeled into helping the contras learn non-military skills. A "freedom fighter" fund set up by the late CIA director's widow, Sophia, in her husband's name has raised $140,000 to teach badly-wounded guerrillas how to get jobs. "They're learning how to make shoes, that sort of thing," a contras rep told us. The location of the school, for obvious reasons, is secret.
